

terms & conditions

For groups of 9 persons and more

We are happy that you have chosen to dine at bermuda. We want to ensure you have the best experience during your visit and kindly ask you to read through these conditions.

Reservations for groups

From Monday to Thursday, we are flexible regarding arrival times. On Fridays and Saturdays, our restaurant is particularly busy, and you can choose between:

17:30 or 18:00 – Your reservation is for 2 hours and 15 minutes.

20:30 or 21:00 onwards – Your reservation lasts until the restaurant closes.

If you wish to enjoy the evening without a strict time limit, you can reserve a full evening package from the group menu with a flexible arrival time.

Menu, drinks, and special requests

Choose your menu from our group menu. The menu should be the same for the entire group, but we will, of course, accommodate allergies and dietary restrictions. Your final choices, including dietary considerations and the final number of guests, must reach us at least 7 days before your arrival. If you make a reservation with shorter notice, we kindly request this information as soon as possible.

To enhance your experience, we ask that you pre-order beverages. Our recommended drink menus are presented in the group menu, but you can also choose to order a welcome drink or some bottles of wine for the table. See the full selection in our wine and drinks card.

Payment

The bill must be settled by one person. We accept most types of credit cards. Credit card fee: All corporate cards and private payment cards issued outside the EU/EEA will incur a fee. For American Express, all transactions will be subject to a fee.

Changes and cancellation

The reservation can be changed or cancelled at no cost up to 7 days before the event. If canceled later than 7 days before, you will be invoiced for the number of guests you informed us of 7 days before the event. This specified number will be charged as the minimum number on the evening and in case of a no-show. If a menu is not agreed upon, the invoiced price will be 450 DKK per person. 7 days before the event, the final guest count must be provided. After this, the count can be reduced by up to 5% of the total number of guests until the day before the event.

Seating arrangement

Groups are always seated together. While we do our best, we cannot guarantee a specific placement in the restaurant. For larger groups, it may be necessary to use multiple tables placed closely together.

We look forward to welcoming you!
